Level 6 Across a range of writing 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I use a variety of simple and complex sentences to achieve my purpose and to contribute to the overall effect of my writing. I use a range of sentence features to clarify or emphasise my meaning, e.g. 'Reluctantly, he...'; 'Five days later, it...' 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I use the full range of punctuation accurately in a variety of sentence structures, with only occasional errors. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I sequence and control my material thinking about the reaction of my reader. I use a range of features to clearly signal the overall direction of the text for the reader e.g. links between paragraphs. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I construct my paragraphs to support my purpose e.g. signaling then developing the topic. I use devices within paragraphs to contribute to the emphasis and effect, of my writing e.g. using adverbials as sentence starters. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I treat my writing material imaginatively and am familiar with the style of a variety of types of writing. I can adapt these styles when needed to suit my purpose and audience, though I may not always be successful in this. I can put forward a convincing point of view using my unique writer's voice and can sustain it throughout my writing. I can use an appropriate level of formality depending on my purpose and audience. I try to use a range of stylistic devices to achieve the effect I want, though I may not always be successful in this. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I choose vocabulary that is generally appropriate to my purpose and audience. I use a range of vocabulary that is generally varied and often ambitious, even though my choices are not always apt 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> My spelling is generally correct including some ambitious, uncommon words. I make occasional errors in complex words such as outrageous, exaggerated, announcing, parallel.
