September 2016

Dear Parents,

A huge welcome back to the new school year here at Southcote Primary. I hope you have all enjoyed your summer break and are keen to get stuck into the first term.

As you may all be aware attendance is a very important matter and links in with your child's education. Attendance is not only being in school but being in school on time. Arriving late will mean that your child misses the introduction to the days learning.

For these reasons I, as Pastoral Support for the school together with our Education Welfare Officer will monitor every child's attendance and punctuality. If your child attendance drops and or begins to accumulate lates then I will talk to your child about going onto a reward system.

The reward system is the use of a star chart where if they get 5 stars in a week they will receive a small prize.

Alongside this each class will be offered the incentive of a pizza party at the end of term if their class has the highest attendance for the term.

Thank you for your continued support.

Mrs L Elliott
Pastoral Support Worker
