

Writing Activities

Choose one of these activities whenever you are writing at home. Don't forget to use your neatest possible handwriting and use correct punctuation. Use a story plan to plan out your work first if you feel that helps. Please do photograph your work and email us when you are finished. We'd love to see it!

Write a letter or email to a member of your family that they have not seen recently. Tell them what you have been doing and ask questions about what they have been doing.	Write a recount of your day. This could be used in history one day to show what happened during this period.	Write a character description of a member of your family. What do they look like? How do they behave? Try to use 'show don't tell' if you think you are a Hot writer!	Write a story involving members of your family. Do they have to defeat a monster? or find something they have lost? Think about the class stories we have written this year to help you.
Choose an interesting building you have found out about, perhaps in our Megastructures topic. Write a list of questions you would like to ask the builders or the architects.	Write a setting description to describe your local area. What is in your local area? What do you like or dislike about it and why?	Write an information report about your local area. Remember to include headings and subheading. As this is a factual piece of writing try to make it very different to the setting description (if you do both).	Write a story about a stranger coming to your local area. What happens? Is it a good thing? Or does something terrible happen? You could make this story as spooky or as heartwarming as you like.
