

Story-Writing Prompt 14

The Perfect Play

Write your own play script in which two very different characters become friends and have to work together to solve a problem.

Use a narrator to briefly set the scene and remember to use brackets around stage directions and actions.